Did You Know?

Holiday decorations have a time limit on their display?

“Holiday decorations are permitted during the appropriate holiday season upon the exterior and/or in a mulched bed of any home on a temporary basis. Temporary shall mean that such decorations must be installed no earlier than 30 days prior to any given holiday and removed no later than 14 days following such holiday.”

From the October 2006 HP Revised Edition of the Rules and Regulations under Ornaments, section (c) page 10.

Clubhouse Information

What Goes Up Must Come Down

– Liz Mongrain is asking for volunteers to help “de-decorate” the clubhouse on Monday, January 7 at 9:00 am. All are welcome.

Round Dancing – A new class will begin on Monday evening, January 7 at 7:00 pm. Bring your neighbors & have some fun while learning to do the waltz. You do not have to know anything about dancing before you begin. Everything is free, so why not start the New Year with some fun & meet your neighbors at Round Dance? Call Jack at 274-0239 for more information.

Round Dance Club - will meet the 1st & 3rd Monday evenings, 8:15 pm. Join your friends for fun and dance. Any questions call Jack 274-0239.

Community Residents

HP Resident Dave Manning has just donated his latest book of poetry The Flower Sermon to the Heritage Pines Library. After a 44 year career as an industrial organic chemist, Dr. Dave began a second life as a poet. As a member of the NC Poetry Society, he has won its Poet Laureate Award three times & is currently host of the Friday Noon Poets of Chapel Hill & serves on the board of the Poetry Council of NC. His poems have appeared in many journals & five of his chapbooks have been published. Congratulations, Dave!

Food Donation - The ladies of Heritage Pines have received a thank you note from the Western Wake Crises Ministry of Apex thanking them for the canned food donated at the December Ladies Luncheon. A total of 190 Pounds was collected for this worthwhile charity. Well done, ladies!
